
Global solutions require local action. For leadership to be effective, it takes leaders who have the courage to tackle issues seen in their own community.

, and .
will share their inspiring stories and enable attendees to connect with the initiatives spearheaded by these leaders. Moderated by Assistant Dean for Inclusive Leadership Curriculum,
